

Mountain power

Sometimes, switching off requires an input of energy from the outside as well as complete relaxation. At ROMANTIK ALPENHOTEL WAXENSTEIN in Grainau, guests are on the right track for finding just that.

TEXT: CORNELIA BRELWSKI | PHOTOS: ROMANTIK ALPENHOTEL WAXENSTEIN

The power of the Bavarian mountains with their pure air and clear waters are known for their rejuvenating qualities. With its manifold alpine flora and wonderful views, the state-approved climatic spa town of Grainau has exactly what it takes for a refreshing holiday. While daily stress cannot always be avoided, the chance to switch off for a few days may yet do wonders, given the right location is at hand.

Situated right by the stunning panorama of the Zugspitze, the highest mountain in Germany, the ROMANTIK ALPENHOTEL WAXENSTEIN in Grainau near Garmisch-Partenkirchen welcomes its guests to enjoy a relaxing time out and indulge in a few days of peace and rejuvenation. Looking back on 100 years of tradition, the hotel draws its unique ambiance from art work and furniture styled by contemporary French artists. The combination of cosy family atmosphere, a lovely wellness area and the location itself adds up to a perfect place for recharging the batteries.

An active day in pure natural surroundings with fresh mountain air helps body and soul to relax and gain new energy. With the crystal-clear Eibsee and Badersee mountain lakes nearby, the guests have the choice of numerous scenic hiking and mountain bike routes. There are golf, climbing and water sports opportunities as well as beautiful alpine ski areas to explore on both the German and the Austrian side.

After a refreshing day outside, the ROMANTIK ALPENHOTEL WAXENSTEIN provides guests with the fitting relaxation, for example at the sauna area with steam bath. Enjoy pure well-being during a cosmetic or Ayurveda treatment with high-quality natural and local products, or simply relax in one of the small pools. The light-flooded bathing complex with whirlpool looks out on the beautiful panoramic views of the Grainau rooftops, the mountain peaks and the surrounding woods.

Hotel guests are invited to enjoy multifaceted delights at the Henri-Philippe gourmet restaurant, which has been named "one of the best in the region" by renowned guides such as Michelin. Discover luxury in a surprisingly down-to-earth kind of way: The innovative cook combines French Haute Cuisine with traditional alpine delicacies.

Owners Jürgen and Maria Lehn are looking forward to welcoming you in their beautiful corner of the Bavarian Alps for a romantic, relaxing and rejuvenating time out at their lovely hotel. Take time for yourself, and allow the perfect location and cosy ambiance to do the rest.

www.waxenstein.de